

BRIBE-TAKER ON THE STAND

Ferdinand P. Nicholas, Boordling Supervisor, Appears Against Calhoun.

HANDLED WITHOUT GLOVES

FORCED TO ADMIT THAT HE HAD COMMITTED PERJURY.

San Francisco, April 16.—Submitting with sullen resignation to an ordeal that appears more disagreeable with each repetition, Ferdinand P. Nicholas, first of the procession of former supervisors who composed the "boondling board" of the Schmitz administration, gave to the jury today his account of the transaction in which he is alleged to have accepted $4,000 offered by Patrick Calhoun, president of the United Railroads, as a bribe for a permit to erect the overhead trolley on certain cable lines owned by the corporation. Throughout a long and tedious day, Nicholas occupied the stand, passing from the interrogations of the prosecution to the less tender questioning of the defense, with the people again directing the examination when the trial was adjourned to next Monday.

Bribe-Taker Questioned.
Assistant District Attorney Francis J. Heney conducted the examination disclosing the relations of Nicholas with James L. Gallagher, who, according to the testimony, paid him $4,000 in two equal installments as a bribe for his vote upon the trolley permit. Mr. Heney, departing from the precedent established in former cases, confined his interrogations to the trolley case, but when Nicholas was turned over to Earl Rogers of the Calhoun staff for cross-examination, the inquiry was enlarged to include the allegations relating to payment of bribes by the gas company, the prizefight trust, the Home and Pacific States Telephone companies and the Parkside Realty company.

Time and again Mr. Rogers forced

Short Breath
"For many months I had great difficulty in breathing, and was unable to take much exercise. The use of Dr. Miles' Heart Remedy was suggested and in six months I was practically cured."

HUGH SLOAN, Poyntette, Wis.

A sign of poor blood circulation is shortness of breath after walking, going up stairs, sweeping, excitement, anger, fright, etc. The quickest and safest thing to do is to take

Dr. Miles' Heart Remedy. It is so sure to help you that it is sold under a guarantee that if the first bottle does not benefit the drug-gist will return your money.

POLICE COURT GLIMPSES

John Obieski, who was arrested Wednesday afternoon for begging on the streets, and who was wearing six or seven full suits of clothes at the time he was taken in, was before Judge Bowman in police court yesterday for a hearing. Incidentally Obieski developed that Judge Bowman is there with the sauerkraut conversation, the court addressing the prisoner in the purest of German.

Obieski was unable to understand what was being said to him, stating that he had been away from the old country so long he had forgotten most of the language. Finally, disgusted, Judge Bowman announced that he would accept a plea of not guilty and try John today, setting the bail at $20. Obieski had but $22 in his pockets when arrested, as a consequence of which he will remain in the city jail until time for trial.

Martin Ploess, who despite the name is a German, was before Judge Bowman yesterday on a charge of destroying property through having broken down the door of his sister's home while intoxicated. Martin, though formerly residing with Mrs. Mary Rudell, his sister, was now living with the Budweiser when it is frothing, and as a result was forced to find lodgings elsewhere. The sister alleged in court yesterday, however,

Nicholas to admit that he knew he was receiving a bribe when he took the money from Gallagher; that he would have voted for the trolley without any underhand consideration if he had been left to the dictates of his own conscience, and that he confidently expected to escape the legal consequences of any of the crimes he had confessed. Mr. Rogers drew from the witness the open and definite admission that he was guilty of bribery on two counts, and that he had committed perjury.

Immunity Question.
Mr. Rogers went far into the matter of immunity granted the former supervisors, and Nicholas, after many evasive replies, said that his understanding of the agreement was "that Rudolph Spreckels was handling the matter of immunity," adding that he had interviewed Mr. Spreckels after being given Gallagher's assurance that the contract would apply to all members of the board who confessed.

Nicholas tried to give an account of what he had done with the $13,725 he admitted having received in all the deals while a member of the board, but was unable to account for more than $5,000.

Wrangling of Attorneys.
Half a dozen times during the day the opposing attorneys engaged in long wrangles over points of law, and upon these occasions, Alexander S. King of Georgia and A. A. Moore of the defense alternated in presenting their side of the issues to the court.

Judge Moore that he must refrain from asking any questions that appeared insulting; but, upon the whole, the session was orderly by comparison with the opening of preceding trials.

Honey Far From Well.
Mr. Heney created something of a stir by addressing the court at the end of the day and declaring that he had been advised by his physician not to engage in the trial. He registered an objection to prolonged sessions of court, and Judge Lawlor stated that it was not his present intention to sit beyond the usual hour.

Mr. Heney was attended during the day by two bodyguards, and the squad of police on duty at Carpenters' hall was increased by six officers in plain clothes, who were seated among the attorneys and the spectators.

that every time Martin lingers over long with the flowing bowl he returns to her house, and calmly removing a door window or even the side of the house, if necessary, enters and declines to depart until he has thrust each member of the family. Martin was separated from $15 or order of the court.

Mrs. Lizzie McDowell, she of the poppy-loving disposition, and probably one of the best known of the habitués of the quarter where the fumes of the seductive "bamboo" can be discerned, was before Judge Bowman yesterday and drew the usual thirty days in the city jail.

"He cut his throat with the pen shoe now. And died with his head on the suety pow." This was the ditty Lizzie warbled as she wandered into the courtroom yesterday, the classic referring to the death of Yum Kee Lin, chief of one of the San Francisco six companies, and alleged to have been the greatest consumer of opium ever in this country.

"What is the matter?" queried Judge Bowman. "Is this any place in which to feel happy?"

"No, no, yer honor," whimpered Lizzie. "but you jess ought tuh hear 'em grinding hip in my head and the scoundrelous to use a lady that a-way."

"Keep on manufacturing for thirty days," soliloquized the court, as he mentioned Lizzie to back up to the city jail.

C. Schafer and Howard Burton, local automobile enthusiasts arrested Thursday evening by Special Officer C. C. Riley for exceeding the speed limit, were arraigned before Judge Bowman yesterday.

Burton admitted his guilt and was fined $25. Schafer failed to appear and a bench warrant was issued for his apprehension, but before his service he wandered in and "punged up" a like amount.

W. H. Phillips, charged with drunkenness, is short ten days on his calendar of "days filled with kind deeds," as a result of having admitted that he became intoxicated willfully, maliciously and with malice aforethought.

"Things ain't goin' right with me, judge," he said, when asked if he had any remarks for the court. "Looks like it's another case of 'all going out and nothin' comin' in.' Kidding, on the square I haven't had a decent feed for so long that one square meal would feel as lonesome inside of me as a solitary cockroach in a cake of ice."

"Get your hot cakes and tenderloins in the city jail for ten days, W. H.," said Judge Bowman, assuming his most paternal aspect.

NEBRASKA SENATORSHIP.

William J. Bryan Is Not Seeking the Toga of Burkett.

Little Rock, Ark., April 16.—Asked today relative to a report that he would be a candidate for the United States senate to succeed Senator E. J. Burkett of Nebraska for re-election, William J. Bryan said:

"There is no foundation for the report that I have decided positively to enter the race, and I have expressed myself as adverse to becoming a candidate. We have a number of excellent Democrats who are worthy of the place, and I would rather see one of them elected than myself. I will not say I will not under any circumstances be elected, but I would prefer not to be."

WILL COST $2,000,000.

Waters-Pierce Company to Pay Fine and Penalties in Cash.

Austin, Tex., April 16.—The mandate from the United States supreme court arrived here today, ending the long litigation between the state of Texas and the Waters-Pierce Oil company in favor of the state, the corporation being denied a rehearing in the outer and penalty suits. It is announced that the corporation officials intend paying the entire amount in cash.
